BIO

Mr. Lu has practiced intellectual property law in the Philadelphia region since 1997. He was admitted to the bar of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1999 and admitted to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) in 1998.

Mr. Lu has extensive and comprehensive experience in every aspect of intellectual property law including procuring U.S. and foreign patents, copyrights and trademarks, and litigating intellectual property rights in federal court. Mr. Lu has litigated patent and trademark disputes throughout the U.S. for a wide variety of clients and technologies. In addition to the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, he has prosecuted and defended intellectual property cases by special admission in the federal district Courts in California, Illinois and New York. The subject matter involved in those patent infringement matters involved computer connectors, machinery, lighting fixtures and luggage design.

Mr. Lu has drafted and prosecuted hundreds of patents on behalf of inventors covering a wide variety of mechanical, software, Internet, and electrical arts. Mr. Lu also advises clients and prepares opinions regarding patentability of new inventions and infringement of existing patents. Mr. Lu has prosecuted trademark appeals before the Trademark Trial & Appeal Board (TTAB), and prosecuted and defended opposition and cancellation proceedings before the TTAB.

Before beginning his legal practice, Mr. Lu had extensive business experience having worked for 16 years in the computer field as a product manager and consultant for various projects. Mr. Lu was invited by China Minister of Electronics to teach Local Area Network (LAN) courses under United Nations and the World Bank Grant.

Mr. Lu is proficient in the Chinese language.
